

ASSEMBLY

by Rob Walton

We have an Assembly about new beginnings.
I put my hand up and ask if it's possible
to have old beginnings.
Miss Carson says she's beginning to tire of my questions.

Later I do my very special out-of-tune singing.
Miss Carson says she can't begin to imagine
what I think I'm doing.
I say it's the beginning
of a new type of music
and the beginning of a new type of Assembly.

Miss Carson says I will spend time outside the Head's office.

Beginning right now.
