

TOO MANY BOTTLES

by Jacqueline Shirtliff

Too many bottles, said Dolphin.
Too many bags, said Whale.
Too many wrappers, said Great White Shark.
Too many straws, said Snail.

Too many flip-flops, said Turtle.
Too many cups, said Seal.
Too many brushes, said Manta Ray.
Too many tops, said Eel.

Too many lighters, said Lobster.
Too many balls, said Huss.
Too much plastic, said Pufferfish,
And not enough room for us!
